

Vampire Squad Training Cheat Sheet

Misdemeanor Exception Cheat Sheet

There is probable cause to believe that person has or did the following:

- has possession of an amount of cannabis less than 20 grams (FSS 893.13(6)(b) and (d))
- contributed to the delinquency or dependency of a minor (FSS 827.04(1), (2))
- committed the offense of criminal mischief or graffiti-related offenses (FSS 806.13)
- violation of an injunction for protection. (FSS 741.30 or FSS 784.046)
- committed a battery. (FSS 784.03)
- act of domestic violence. (FSS 741.28)
- an act of retail or farm theft. (FSS 812.015)
- driver of a vehicle involved in a crash, has committed an offense under Chapters 316 or 322 in connection with a crash.
- a concealed weapon (FSS 790.01 & 790.02)
- disorderly conduct on the premises of an establishment (FSS 509.143)
- personal property of a public lodging establishment or public food service establishment (FSS 509.162)
- trespassed on the grounds of a school facility (FSS 810.097)
- committed the offense of stalking (FSS 784.048)
- committed the offense of transit fare evasion (FSS 812.015(4))
- a firearm or ammunition when the person is subject to an injunction for domestic violence (FSS 790.233)
- trespassed in any retail establishment, farm land, or mass transit vehicle as described in FSS 812.015.
- A misdemeanor has been committed, based upon an affidavit from a LEO of the Federal Government.
- A felony was committed on state military property or a misdemeanor was committed in the presence of a LEO of the Florida National Guard.